

Blue Card Visa for skilled workers holding a university degree

Last update: September 2024

As a skilled worker with a university degree recognized in Germany, you will be issued with an EU Blue Card if the employment you want to take up matches with your professional qualifications and you can present a contract of employment certifying a certain gross annual salary.

Further information on the EU Blue Card conditions can be found on the website of the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees at www.bamf.de and on the official website from the Federal Government for qualified professionals <https://www.make-it-in-germany.com/de/visum-aufenthalt/arten/blaue-karte-eu>.

The application for the blue card is only possible online through the Consular Services Portal. Your application will then be checked for completeness. Communication regarding any additional information needed will be done directly through the Consular Services Portal. An appointment can only be booked afterwards.

Apply now online here and upload the following documents:

- Personally signed passport (original with one copy of the passport data page and visa), with at least two completely empty pages and sufficient validity

Appointment scheduling for the blue card is possible after your documents have been reviewed. You will then receive a link for booking an appointment. The application can only be submitted in person at your previously booked appointment at the visa section of the embassy (Willadingweg 78, 3006 Bern).

At your appointment, please present all original documents and your biometric photos.

In this visa category, most applications are typically processed within 2 weeks. The processing time can be longer in special cases. Please do not contact the mission abroad to check the status of your application during the normal processing period. Such inquiries are extremely time-consuming for the visa department and cannot be answered. We will contact you by email as soon as the decision has been made.

The visa will be valid for 12 months and allows you to start working. You can travel in the entire Schengen area for 90 days per half year.
