

Visa to getting married in Germany and joining my future spouse

Last update: January 2024

The German Embassy in Bern has generated this information leaflet. The Embassy is competent for visa applications of those applicants who reside in Switzerland with a valid residence permit.

Applications can be submitted in person, with prior appointment and the following application documents:

- Personally signed passport (original with one copy of the passport data page), with at least two completely empty pages and sufficient validity
- Valid Swiss residence permit with one copy
- Application form fully completed and signed including declaration to section 54 residence Act: application form with one copy
- One passport sized photo – no older than three months, according to biometric standards
- Confirmation by German marriage registrar that application for registration of marriage has been completed and wedding date has been set with one copy
- copy of future spouse's passport and registration in Germany
- Evidence of basic German language skills
Certificates issued by any institution testing in accordance with the standards of the Association of Language Testers in Europe (ALTE) are accepted.
- Confirmation of travel health insurance for the time up to the wedding date
- Postage expenses of 7 Swiss Francs
- Visa fee of 75 Euro payable by cash in Swiss Francs, by Visa or MasterCard (information here)

Please prepare the originals with one set of copies of all the indicated documents. Original documents will be return to you while a copy per set will be required. Missing documentation delays the procedure and can result in your application being rejected.

The German Embassy Bern reserve the right to ask for additional documents at any time during the processing of your application.

In this visa category, most applications are typically processed within 3 months. Please do not contact the mission abroad to check the status of your application during the normal processing period. Such inquiries are extremely time-consuming for the visa department and cannot be answered. We will contact you by email as soon as the decision has been made.

The visa will be valid for 3 months. You should apply for the extension of your visa at the competent migration office at your place of residence after you getting married.
