

Working Holiday Program

Last update: December 2025

The Working Holiday Visa Program is based on a bilateral agreement between the Federal Republic of Germany and Andorra, Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Chile, Israel, Japan, New Zealand, the Republic of Korea, the SAR Hong Kong, Taiwan and Uruguay, as well as the Youth Mobility program with Canada. These programs aim at enabling young people to gain insight into culture and daily life in Germany. The intention is to promote increased mutual understanding and the applicant's primary aim should be to visit Germany

To be eligible for a Working Holiday Visa and apply at the German Mission in Switzerland you should

- be a citizen either of Andorra, Argentina, Australia, Chile, Canada, Israel, Japan, New Zealand or Uruguay
- be at least 18 years of age but have not turned 31 yet when filing your application
- not be accompanied by dependent family members (e.g. children) during your stay

Employment is allowed throughout the validity of the visa but should remain of temporary character in order to facilitate additional financial means to your holiday travel intentions in Germany:

- Citizens of Argentina may work for a total of six months only
- Citizens of Andorra, Chile and Uruguay may work for up to six months with the same employer
- Citizens of Australia, Canada, Japan, New Zealand may work for up to twelve months
- Citizens of Israel may work for up to three months with the same employer. After three months, employment can be continued with a different employer

Self-employment is permitted under agreements with Andorra, Chile, Israel, Japan, and Uruguay.

In this visa category, most applications are typically processed within 2-3 weeks. Please do not contact the mission abroad to check the status of your application during the normal processing period. Such inquiries are extremely time-consuming for the visa department and cannot be answered. We will contact you by email as soon as the decision has been made.

Although we will provide you with a file number, please understand that we cannot respond to questions regarding the status of your visa application. Should we have any questions or should we require additional documentation to process your application, we will contact you.

The working holiday visa is a national visa type D and allows its holder to travel in Schengen for 90 days per half year.
